

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JASMINE TORO, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

-against-

GIFT CRATES, LLC,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:22-cv-06131 (JLR)

ORDER

JENNIFER L. ROCHON, United States District Judge:

Plaintiff Jasmine Toro alleges that Defendant's website is not accessible to blind and visually impaired customers and, thus, violates Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. On November 9, 2022, the Court ordered the parties to discuss settlement, and report to the Court whether those discussions were successful within forty-five days of that Order. ECF No. 11. The parties have not yet submitted that letter. Nevertheless, by separate Order today, the Court is referring this case to the assigned Magistrate Judge for General Pretrial Purposes, including settlement.

In addition, to conserve resources, to promote judicial efficiency, and in an effort to achieve a faster disposition of this matter, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties must discuss whether they are willing to consent, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), to conducting all further proceedings before the assigned Magistrate Judge. If all parties so consent, counsel shall file on ECF a fully executed Notice, Consent, and Reference of a Civil Action to a Magistrate Judge form, available at <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/forms/consent-proceed-us-magistrate-judge>.

If the parties do so, and the Court so orders the form, all further proceedings will then be conducted before the assigned Magistrate Judge rather than before the undersigned. There will be no adverse consequences if the parties do not consent to proceed before the Magistrate Judge.

Dated: January 11, 2023
New York, New York

SO ORDERED.

JENNIFER L. ROCHON
United States District Judge
